ME XXI NO. 234

DECATUR, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 5, 1890.

PRICE 10 CENTS PER WEEK

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

A Slim Attendance and Very Little Business Done.

MORE ANTI-TARIFF REMONSTRANCES.

Messrs. Hoar, in the Senate, and Boutwell, in the House, Continue to Urge the Consideration of Their Resolutions.

SENATE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The attendance of senators at the opening of to-day's session was very slim—the republican side of the chamber being more fully represented, however, than the democratic side. Numerous petitions and remonstrances against the passage of the Wilson tariff bill were presented from the states of New Hampshire, Michigan, Maine, Wisconsin, Nevada, and California. Those from Nevada were in relation to the duty on wool, and those from California were in relation to the sugar bounty.

A bill for the purchase of a portrait of Capt. Samuel Chester Reid, of the privateer Armstrong, was reported from the committee on the library and placed on the calendar.

A resolution was offered by Mr. Hoar calling on the secretary of the treasury for a statement of the sums paid to Mr. Blount for salary, services, or other expenses as special commissioner to Hawaii, together with copies of all vouchers and receipts therefor, also for information as to the fund from which and the law under which payment was made.

"Let that resolution lie over," said Mr. Gorman, and the resolution went over till Monday. On motion of Mr. Gorman, it was ordered that when the senate adjourns to-day it be till Monday next.

House bill relating to the disqualification of registers and receivers of the United States land offices, and such disqualifications.

THE REPORTED FALL OF BAGE

Discredited by the Brazilian Government—Reinforcements Going to the Besieged Town.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 5.—There is no special change in the situation here. Rumors have reached this city that the town of Bage, in the state of Rio Grande do Sul, which has been besieged by the insurgents for about a month, had finally capitulated; but these rumors are not confirmed by official dispatches received here. The loyal garrison at Bage consists of 1,300 troops while the force besieging the town numbers 2,000.

The government places no confidence whatever in the reports of the surrender of Bage, though they admit that the garrison there has probably been weakened by the long siege to which it has been subjected, and that its numbers have been lessened by the several engagements that have taken place. Orders have been received by the minister of war for a force to proceed at once to the relief of the town.

Acting under these orders, Gen. Hippolite, commanding a column of 2,000 men yesterday left Livramento for Bage. At about the same time Gen. Sampaio, with 3,000 men left Cerro Chato, his destination also being Bage. This force, it is thought, will be more than enough to raise the siege.

Livramento is seventy-eight miles from Bage, while Cerro Chato is only fifty-four miles from the besieged town. Bage is an important place, and the government dispatches a strong force there in order to guard against any possibility of its falling into the hands of the insurgents.

SPANISH DEMANDS

REFORMERS IN A FIX.

Delegated for Service on an Errand of Mercy.

THEY BRING UP IN A POLICE STATION.

An Unlucky Time Chosen to Visit the Objects of Their Solicitude—The Unpleasant Predicament of Six Young Jews.

HARTFORD, Conn., Jan. 5.—Six well-known young Hebrews of this city set on Wednesday night on a mission of reform to a disreputable house on Potter street where the proprietress and inmates are Jews. The young women attended a German-Hebrew ball recently and came under the eye of Rabbi Elkins. He learned of their character and abode, and in a conference with prominent members of his congregation it was decided, for the credit of the Jewish people of Hartford, to take measures to close the place. A committee of five young men was appointed to visit the house and urge the young women to leave the resort and live respectable lives.

They went there last night, accompanied by another young man of their faith, as a sort of a volunteer committeeman. Hardly had they seated themselves in the parlor when the police, who had been for some time contemplating a raid, made a descent on the premises and arrested the whole

THE NEWS OF THE DAY

The Joint Indictment Against Leighton and Others Made Public.

A MISSOURI PACIFIC TRAIN WRECKED.

The Ex-Cashier of the New Orleans Mint Acquitted—Race Troubles in Ohio—A Complimentary Nomination, Etc., Etc.

The Joint Indictment Against Leighton et al. Made Public.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 4.—The joint indictment against George N. Leighton, James Yoast, J. Don MacNeale, William B. Burnet and W. A. Thompson, for defrauding the Old Men's and Widows' homes, was made public yesterday morning. Stripped of its legal phraseology, it charges that all the men named in the indictment were in the scheme to sell a mortgage on property for more than the property was worth, and while they knew that another previous mortgage on the same property was still in effect.

The attorneys for William F. Burnet have requested that their client be allowed to remain in New York city a few days longer. This will probably be granted.

A Missouri Pacific Train Wrecked.

COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Jan. 4.—Train 222, which leaves at 10 o'clock on the Missouri Pacific for Kansas City, was wrecked Tuesday night one mile west of this city at a bridge over Sycamore creek. A rail had been removed. The engine passed over safely on the ties. The tracks of three passenger coaches were demolished. Fortunately no one was seriously injured. The train was a local one and but few passengers were aboard.

The impression prevails that it was done to injure the engineer. All trains were delayed on account of the wreck about twelve hours.

Dowling Acquitted.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 4.—James M. Dowling, the ex-cashier of the United States mint, who was accused of having embezzled $25,000 and started a fire in the vault to cover up the crime, was acquitted by the jury in the United States court at 7 o'clock last evening. The evidence was all circumstantial, most of it being presented by government experts, who came from Washington to investigate the origin of the fire. Dowling's defense was merely a denial of the charges. The case attracted considerable interest, and the verdict caused a good deal of surprise, as the chain of circumstantial evidence had been effectively woven.

Race Troubles in Ohio.

WEST UNION, O., Jan. 3.—The negroes of Wayne and Winchester towns came up in arms to prevent the lynching of Murderer Parker. James Hasson, a resident of Winchester, had been to Red Oak, a small settlement across the Brown county line, and while there freely expressed his opinion against Parker. On his way home he was ambushed by a party of negroes, who opened a murderous fire on him. He escaped unhurt and made his way home.

An Extraordinary Cure for Insanity. ELWOOD, Ind., Jan. 4.—John Rudy, aged 31, has been an idiot for twenty-five years. Two boys, through pure meanness, scared him so badly that he became a raving maniac. After making life hideous for his relatives for some time they succeeded in pacifying him. His physicians have pronounced him sane and say he will remain so. The past is all a blank to him.

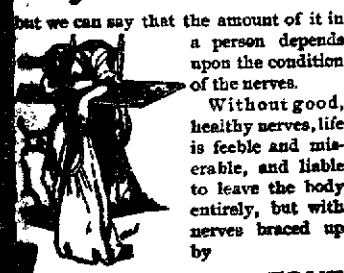

To Reimburse California, Oregon and Nevada.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Mr. McGuire introduced in the house, yesterday, a bill to reimburse California, Oregon and Nevada for money expended by them in the suppression of the rebellion. Under the bill California will receive $3,951,915, Oregon $335,152, and Nevada $404,040.

A Complimentary Nomination.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 4.—The joint republican caucus last night nominated Judge H. F. Finley, of White county, for United States senator. Senator Lindsay will be re-elected next Tuesday.

SPECIAL SALE.

We will offer GREAT BARGAINS in our ART ROOM for the next few days.

Piano Lamps, Banquet Lamps, Boudoir Lamps, Card Stands, Screens, all sizes; Umbrella Stands, Statuary and everything in that department.

We propose to CLEAR OUT enough goods from this department to reduce the line to where it should be at this season of the year.

OTTO E. CURTIS & BRO.,
Jewelers and Dealers in Fine China.

NOT SO WITH US.

This average merchant, as we are told, is now trimming his sails and getting ready to endure a season of hard times. It is not so with us. We do not intend that there shall be any dull season for us. We intend to compel purchases by virtue of the extraordinary values which we shall offer. We have in stock a large lot of shoes which we purchased at being from the old FERRISS & LAPHAM stock. These shoes are made by a Rochester manufacturer of Ladies' Fine Shoes who took a medal at the World's Fair. They are high class goods as every shoe dealer knows. We have this manufacturer's goods in ladies' hand turn shoes which are as fine Dongol stock as you can find. They are in opera heel and toes, opera toes and common sense heels, and common sense toes and heels. They were made to sell at $4 a pair and are well worth the money. The manufacturer's price on these shoes to the jobbers was very much more than we are going to ask you for them. We intend to sell these high grade goods out at

52½ CENTS ON THE DOLLAR,

$1.79 PER PAIR.

We have also some machine sewed shoes for ladies from the same manufacturer, made over the same lasts and of the same pattern as the hand turns which we will sell at the unheard of low price of

$1.40 PER PAIR.

These shoes are in all sizes, all widths and all styles. The majority of them, however, are in the narrow widths. Ladies who have wide feet and have been obliged therefore to purchase high priced (since the common grades are not made in narrow widths) will find in this great sale especially tempting bargains for them. We are not offering a few pairs only, but over 1500 in all. These goods are strictly high grade and are as good for wear and appearance as money can buy. We want you to come and avail yourselves of this opportunity to buy. We want to clean out all this stock of 1500 pairs in one month if possible, besides all else that we may sell. We want you to buy right now. We want to make our January sales larger than any month in the history of the retail business of this store. BUY NOW.

CLARITY STORM NOTES.

Some of the Friends Were Sent Off—500 Worthy People on the Books.

By these means every day at the Decatur state fair the good work of giving assistance to worthy people in the community goes on steadily. There appears to be an ample supply of clothing and other articles of wearing apparel, besides plenty of food in packages ready to be handed out to seekers. There are now 500 worthy beneficiaries on the big book, and they are given supplies promptly when the make applications. The supplies given at the store are received by persons known to be needy. Mr. Barrows and W. A. Holman, overseer of the poor, keep close watch of the books and see that persons receiving aid from the county do not impose upon the store, and vice versa. The names, addresses, and needs of each family, are noted on the books, the result of personal investigation, and if there are any frauds they are quickly discovered.

A FEW CASES.
The big book tells of some queer experiences for the amusement of the managers of the store.

A woman with seven grown children has been trying to get help. It was learned that she is strong and hearty and is making money taking in washing. She has a son who is earning good wages. The woman is down on her hands and feet, but not needy. She wanted only new clothing—not old garments. No help given.

A man who owns his dwelling house, has good furniture and an organ, and receives a salary of $50 a month asked for help and didn't get it.

Another party who owns her property and has a yard full of chickens wanted groceries and clothing. The investigation found the family feeding a tramp, and the woman, who is a housekeeper, was away on a visit. As the family is not suffering and was withheld.

Father with only a son at his home asked for aid. It was learned that the father spent all the money the boy could get for whiskey, and the note under his name is: "Go slow; don't help the father."

A woman got help for herself and children, and then went around bragging about how she worked the charity store. A man who knew that the woman was not a good mother, and who had a photograph of her, and the week she got aid, gave the more managers a up, and when she came again the booster was shut off.

She was told that if she could spend eight dollars in a lump for photographs she certainly ought not ask for help. All she had to say as she left the counter was: "Well, if you don't want to help me, you needn't to."

NOTES.

There are now eight sewing women and one cobbler employed by the store.

One woman in a lamp for photographs she certainly ought not ask for help. All she had to say as she left the counter was: "Well, if you don't want to help me, you needn't to."

The state board of agriculture has taken its look at Springfield's site for the permanent location of the state fair, and to-night they leave for Bloomington to do the same by that city. The entire membership today, accompanied by quite a number of the citizens' committee, took carriages at the Leiland and were driven out North Sixth street to the arena, sent to Eighth street and thence out the Peoria road to the grounds. The members seemed impressed with the site. Everything was shaped up in order. The carriages were driven over the old grounds and the new trails to the west, around the race track, about the stables, thence to the railroad platform where the transportation facilities were well shown, and thence back to the city. Arrangements for visiting the various points were made as follows: Bloomington, Friday, Jan. 6, Decatur, Tuesday, Jan. 9, Peoria, Wednesday, Jan. 10.

TO VISIT DECATUR TUESDAY

The Members of the State Fair Board Coming to Town.

Preparations for the Reception in Our City—Several Good Sites to Show.

Decatur state fair boomers and citizens generally are already in a flutter of hope and expectancy over the coming of the members of the State Board of Agriculture, who will pay Decatur an official visit Tuesday, January 9th, for the purpose of personally inspecting the sites we have to offer for the permanent location of the state fair. The gentlemen took in the sites at Springfield and Bloomington yesterday—at the capital in the forenoon and at Bloomington in the afternoon. At the last-named city last night the officials were given a reception at the Business Men's club rooms, at which rosy speeches were made by Gen. John McNulla, ex-Gov. Fifer, Hon. Owen Booth, Hon. Edmund McDonald and Dr. J. L. White.

It is expected that the members of the state board will reach Decatur early Tuesday morning. They will be taken in charge by representative citizens and piloted to the old fair grounds, west of Decatur, and to the other available sites east of the city. All will exert themselves to put Decatur in the best light possible and it is believed that the gentlemen will be made to see at a glance that Decatur is by big odds the best point in the whole state at which to locate the fair. On visit is to be business from start to finish, no parading or brass band work. Many of the gentlemen know that Decatur is the best city for the fair in the contest, and whatever Springfield, Peoria or Bloomington may claim or offer, is it admitted by disinterested parties that there is no better location in the state for the show than right here in Decatur.

We want the fair. We are trying to get it. We believe we will get it. Leading citizens are working for it, and at the round up next Thursday before the voting begins our representatives will be at court to present our claims in the best light. Decatur has complied with all the conditions, and if the fair comes to us, the state board will never have cause to complain. Every pledge will be more than kept, and everybody will join in the movement to take care of the people who may come, and see that financially every advantage is in a measure secured.

From Decatur the board will go to Peoria, visiting that town on Wednesday.

LOOKING AT SPRINGFIELD.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES.

Mrs. W. H. Elwood Gives a Charming Afternoon Party.

This afternoon the home of Mrs. W. H. Elwood, on West William street, was the scene of a most charming afternoon progressive whist party. The hour was two o'clock and at that time about fifty ladies assembled. The afternoon is being spent with that popular social game and at 6 o'clock a supper will be served under the direction of Mrs. Mary Garrett.

The ladies present are Mesdames J. B. Ballard, Frank Elwood, T. McLaughlin, R. L. and E. B. Wadsworth, H. W. Bartholomew, W. E. Nelson, Fred Bartholomew, John Armstrong, B. K. Bartholomew, M. B. THE SWAMPY-POPS.

Mesdames Lada Muller and Anna Lyons entertained the members of the Twenty-four club last evening at the home of the former on West Wood street, in a most delightful manner. The Mandolin Orchestra was present and after the whist game dancing was enjoyed. The hours were from 8 until 12 o'clock. Those present were Mesdames Adair and Clara Elbert, Villa and Bess Miller, Bertha Whitmer, Minnie Dill, Lada Muller, Anna Lyons, Ella Basse, and Mrs. Philip Muller and Messrs. B. Irwin, O. W. Dawson, H. Crowell, L. J. Goodson, W. G. Bachman, Will Curran, J. W. Newport, C. Traver, Robert Muller, Oscar Muller and B. Beck, of St. Louis.

AGAINST THE WILSON BILL.

The Chicago Herald says with the income tax it is intolerable.

The Chicago Herald, the junior Democratic paper in Chicago, to-day rails against the Wilson bill. It has come to the conclusion that the Wilson bill of itself is illogical and dishonest and can serve no good purpose; but taken in connection with the income tax, which is practically a part of the bill, it thinks it intolerable and means the burial of the Democratic party at the next election if it becomes a law. It is refreshing to know that there are some Democratic papers that are able to see that the Wilson bill means ruin, and are brave enough to say so. The idea that Wilson, of Virginia; Tansy, of Missouri; Beckwith, of Arkansas; Turner, of Georgia; Bryan, of Nebraska, and McMillin, of Tennessee, men who know nothing about general business, who live in states that do no manufacturing, could get up a bill in the interest of American industries and American prosperity is ridiculous.

PRACTICAL LINGUISTRY.

At the Woman's Club Rooms Tomorrow Afternoon.

Dr. Richard S. Rosenthal, who at the present time makes his headquarters in Chicago, and who, by the way, according to the best judges, both here and in Europe, has produced the best book of practical linguistics in the city and will lecture at the Woman's club rooms at 2:30 p. m. to-morrow, Saturday. With the view of interesting our people in the study of German, French and Spanish, he will at the time illustrate his method of teaching those languages, and at the same time will have a photograph by which those languages will be on tap, and it will speak to those present in German, French and Spanish. Dr. Rosenthal receives sufficient encouragement he will organize a class.

Burglars.

Burglars entered the W. H. Diller butcher shop in the Christopher "barnum" block, some time during last night and made away with about $5 in change.

The imbedded butcher shop on South Main street was entered but it is not known that anything was taken.

The fireman at the Arcade chased a couple of men away this morning at an early hour, but not until the glass was broken in the back door, the noise awakening him.

This morning it was discovered that one or more burglars had entered the home of J. E. Bering, at the corner of William and Edward streets. Several of the doors on the first floor were found open, but inspection failed to discover the loss of any article of value. Entrance was effected through one of the parlor windows.

Peter Haley.

It is expected that Peter Haley will promptly appear in Justice Shorb's court Monday forenoon to answer any charge his injured wife may bring against him. He has put up a cash bond of $500 to do so, and besides it is known that he has about $1000 on deposit in a bank in Peoria. He is probably out of the city for a few days.
